

I am disturbed mightily by Sinclair Broadcasting's ignoring of their obligation as users of the citizen's airwaves to mandate that their stations broadcast the biased and inaccurate "Stolen Honor." I don't care who the candidate is, I would be equally upset. This is a prime example of the challenge to our democracy that consolidation of ownership presents. At the very least, Sinclair should mandate response time for the Kerry campaign. Where are the equal time rules when we need them. Gone, and that's a sad loss for the citizens of this great country. I hope many citizens take this up as an example of the dangers of media consolidation. Thank you.
